BY EFFIE ELLSLER

She Plays Hazel Kirke, Though Not With Old-Time

Power.

connected with "Hazel Kirke," played that role at the Academy last night, supported by a capable company. The actress is not so convincing in her old role as she was in former years. Yet she held her audience from first to last by her impersonation, which still retains much of its old-time powers. If Effic Elisler is the only Hazel Kirke, so was the eminent actor, Mr. Couldock, the only Dunstan Kirke, and this important role suffered some in the hands of Mr. Frank Weston, though his work cannot be said to be altogether without mert. His dialect was not broad enough, and in reading some of his lines he very nearly forgot it altogether, or else gave it a ported by a capable company. The ac-reading some of his lines he very nearly forgot it altogether, or else gave it a touch more nearly resembling that of the rural New Englander.

Mr. Herbert Fortier did a capital piece of clean comedy work in his portraval of Pittaeus Greeks. The cevival of the old play with Effic Elister in her famous role, seemed to be appreciated by the audiences at both performances, though at neither was the attendance very large.

"A Sort of Rest."

"A Sort of Rest."

A common adage is that of "Let well chough alone." Judering by the surprising success and unusual welcome met by Broadburst and Currie's humorous musical melance, "A Son of Rest," during the last season, that fun-making plece was "well enough." But the management thinks improvement is possible, and the phrase, "well enough," does not satisfy them. They prefer the expression "best ever," and to that end have revised, revammed and improved the comedy until criticism will be disarmed. It will be almost a new "Son of Rest" that visits the Bijou sext week.

Another Yiddish Company.

Another Yiddish Company. On Tuesday night the Thalia Theatr Company of New York city, headed b the Yiddish actors, David Kessler, Mor-ris Moshkowitz and Samuel Thorenberg. supported by an all-star cast, will play the "Krentzer Sonata."

Duane-Dewsbury.

Mr. Tom Duane of Brunswick county, brother of the groom, was best man. Miss Sue Duane presided at the organ, and rendered beautifully the wedding much. Master Roslyn Young and little Miss Juanita Robertson carried the ribbons.

The church was tastefully decorated with growing plants, palms and white candles.

They will be at home to their friends after October 12th.
